Part One

Chapter I - Nature and Purposes

Article 1

The United Nation of Yisrael established by this Charter in the form of an Ultra-Sovereign Divine Covenant Trust, as a Sovereign Nation State to achieve an order of peace and justice, to promote our solidarity as YHWH's chosen people, to strengthen our international cooperation with the family of nations, and to defend our sovereignty, territorial integrity, and independence.

Chapter II - Principles

Article 2

The United Nation of Yisrael reaffirms the following principles:

1. Divine Law supersedes all natural and man-made law, which is found in the Torah. International law is the standard of conduct of States in their reciprocal relations;
2. The Constitution of the United Nation of Yisrael shall be the supreme law of the nation, which draws all of its authority and guidance from the Torah;
3. International order consists essentially of respect for the personality, sovereignty, and independence of States, and the faithful fulfillment of obligations derived from treaties and other sources of international law;
4. Good faith shall govern the relations between the United Nation of Yisrael and other States;
5. The solidarity of the United Nation of Yisrael and the high aims, which are sought through it require the political organization of its citizens on the basis of the effective exercise of a representative theocracy;
6. Every Tribe, Camp or Community has the right to choose, without external interference, its own internal interworking and to organize itself in the way best suited to it, and has the duty to abstain from intervening in the affairs of another Tribe, Camp or Community. Subject to the foregoing, the United Nation of Yisrael shall cooperate fully among themselves, independently of the nature of their various internal organizations, and social systems;
7. Economic cooperation is essential to the common welfare and prosperity of the peoples of the United Nation of Yisrael;

Chapter III - Membership / Citizenship / Naturalization

Article 3

The United Nation of Yisrael is a sovereign Nation State and operates as the Divine Covenant government in exile in and throughout the seven continents (North America, South America, Europe, Asia, Australia and Africa; including the adjoining Islands). We stand squarely upon our Oath to (YHWH) and embodying the Torah (Teaching) as our guiding principles extend citizenship and nationality to all Hebrew-Yisraelites and members of the Original and Native Hebrew People of the Diaspora in Propria Persona (Natural Beings). Citizenship or Membership is available to tribes, camps communities and/or individuals that meet certain criteria and complete the appropriate application or naturalization process. The basic criteria are listed in Article 9 of our Constitution.

Article 4

Tribes, camps and / or communities that have been established for at least one year, have at least 10 ratified members and have been approved for membership by the Council of Elders can start the process of becoming a sovereign member of the United Nation of Yisrael. Our sovereignty as established by Article 2 of our Constitution extends the full rights and privileges sovereignty to all member organizations upon completion of application and indoctrination processes.

Chapter IV - Fundamental Rights and Duties of the Nation State

Article 5

The United Nation of Yisrael is a fully autonomous sovereign nation state, which operates in and recognizes the sovereignty of its individual sovereign nationals, members, tribes, camps and communities.

Article 6

Every Tribe, Camp and / or Community is juridical equal, enjoy equal rights and equal capacity to exercise these rights, and have equal duties. The rights of each Tribe, Camp and / or Community depend not upon its power to ensure the exercise thereof, but upon the mere fact of its existence as a sovereign personality under international law.

Article 7

Every Tribe, Camp and/or Community has the duty to respect the rights enjoyed by every other Tribe, Camp and/or Community in accordance with the Torah and international law.

Article 8

The fundamental rights of our sovereign nationals, tribes, camps and / or Communities may not be impaired in any manner whatsoever.

Chapter V - International Trusteeship System

Article 9

We the sovereign national peoples (sui juris) of the Most High YHWH, under his divine authority, uplift his Holy name and serve as the settlers in the establishment of this Ultra-Sovereign Divine Covenant Trust for the Kingdom of Heaven to be re-established here on Earth, as the United Nation of Yisrael.

Article 10

The Council of Elders will serve as the board of trustees for the Nation and will administer all services and benefit to the citizens (beneficiaries) through the judges, ministers and officers appointed, hired or elected for any specific positions within the governmental structure.

Article 11

The United Nation of Yisrael will administer other trust in the daily operation of its own government. Initially three trusts will become operational upon ratification and entry into force. These trusts will be the International Sovereign Real Property (land) Trust, the Health and Human Services Trust and the Financial Surety and Insurance Trust.

Article 12

The International Sovereign Real Property (land) Trust functions as the central repository for all sovereign lands held in allodium for the United Nation of Yisrael.

Article 13

The Health and Human Services Trust functions as the central organization for the Nation's Healthcare Cooperative.

Article 14

The Financial Surety and Insurance Trust functions as the central guarantor for the Nation in all matters of commerce and fiscal transactions.

Article 15

The peoples of the United Nation of Yisrael are scattered throughout the entire earth and have blended and mixed with many other cultures. Therefore as a nation of people made up of many peoples, we will extend beneficial and capital interest over a vast geographic area not limited to our inherited promised land. Upon completion of the naturalization process, benefits and services will commence.

Article 16

The United Nation of Yisrael as a sovereign nation state requires no benefit, privilege or franchise to any other government or other outside-party and, therefore the State or its citizens owe no duty to any other government or other outside-party.

Article 17

The United Nation of Yisrael is formed based on an everlasting covenant made by the Most High YHWH with his chosen people, the Nation of Yisrael. Therefore this charter, trust and nation are not bound by any Rule against Perpetuities and are Irrevocable.

Article 18

The Council of Elders is empowered to control every aspect of the nation according to this charter. These powers include, but are in no way limited to—

1. The power to bind the nation in a contract, especially where such obligation is implied-by-law, and the power to contract with member(s) and the citizen(s);
2. The power to partition, exchange, sell, pledge or mortgage the nations property, either in whole or in part;
3. The power to lease nation property;
4. The power to issue, change, or otherwise dispose of securities of the nation;
5. The power to support the member(s) and citizen(s) in all reasonable manner;
6. The power to prosecute and defend in the nations' name or council of elders name;
7. The power to make gifts out of nation property;
8. The power to delegate all unessential powers and duties; and
9. The power to exercise personal judgment and every discretionary power not prohibited by the charter. He/She may do whatever a man or woman may lawfully do according to natural right.

Article 19

The Council of Elders, as fiduciary to the members and citizen(s), assumes certain basic duties outside of the management of the nation's property and interest, and other general duties aside from whatever specific duties may be conferred upon the Council of Elders in this charter. These duties include, but are not limited to--

1. The duty to support the members and citizens in any essential needs which it may have, out of the funds which would otherwise be paid to it in distribution. And if such funds are not available, the duty to accumulate any balance needed.
2. The duty to refrain from taking advantage of peculiar knowledge or position when dealing directly with the beneficiary(s);
3. The duty to exercise the utmost good faith in all concerns of the nation, whether dealing with the nation's property and interest itself, or directly with the member(s) and citizen(s) in matters concerning the nation, including to care for, protect and secure the nation's property and interest;
4. The duty to preserve, protect and further the nation's interest according to the purposes designated in this charter, including pressing all reasonable demands and prosecuting and fending off all claims, and claiming all available exceptions and taking all available remedies and advantages in nation matters;
5. When delegating unessential powers and duties, the duty to exercise at least a general supervision of the nation's affairs, and to perform any ministerial acts which require the exercise of discretion or judgment;
6. The duty to keep minutes and separate accounts of the nation, even if kept in a book with other accounts, with minutes showing decisions and resolutions reached, and accounts showing the state of the nation and pertinent details of transactions;
7. Upon acceptance of the trusteeship, the duty to secure and protect the nation's property, interest and national documents;
8. When investing nation funds, the duty to invest them securely, "so that they shall be preserved intact for the remainderman," and to invest productively, "so that they shall yield [at least] the current rate of interest to the life tenant;"
9. The duty to concur with all co-trustees, except where authorized to act individually
